بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

Is it the Laws of the Time of Jahiliyyah That They Desire?

Iraq stands once again on the edge of another hole of the kafir democracy that only brought its slaves more loss every time they roam around the election boxes which they worship instead of Allah and believe that it has the ability do them good or bad, just like the worshipers of idols did in old times, who believed that Allah is their creator, but they associated other gods in their worship thus committing shirk, and most of them do not believe in Allah unless they associate others.

Over 300 mushrikin are candidates to be part of the parliament of shirk, seeking to replace Allah the true and only lawmaker and challenge him in his divinity and governance. They are elected and joined in their kufr by thousands of electors who give their votes in over 8000 empty boxes, participated by the Rafidi murtaddin and those falsely claiming to be of the Sunnah, along the minorities. This scene of kufr is led by two Rafidi teams quarreling in everything except in their war against Islam, while the the murtaddin belonging to the Sunnah are participating in the race of kufr that they never win.

The stance of the Islamic State from democracy and what surrounds it from elections and parliaments and other, is a solid, old, and known stance that has not changed, emerging from its belief in Allah as a Creator, the One god, and a Wise Ruler, and only He has the right to make laws, and worship is only to Him alone, and His creation must worship Him and obey Him and follow His orders and His rules, for that is the righteous path.

It is also the da'wah of all the messengers and prophets of Allah; they all invited to worship Allah alone and follow His ruling, and abandon kufr and taghut. Allah says: "To every community We sent a messenger: 'Worship God, and avoid idolatry'" (An-Nahl: 36). At-Tabari (may Allah have mercy on him) said: "To every community and every century Allah sent a messenger, they all invite to worshiping Allah, and warned from worshiping anything else, to worship Allah and avoid the taghut. Almighty kept sending messengers with this message".

The Islamic State remains following the steps of the Messenger ﷺ and the messengers before him, inviting people to what they invited to and warning them from the torture of Allah upon those who disregard His orders and do not avoid the taghut. And what was the result?! It is the same old result which these blessed verses expressed in His words: "Some of them Allah guided, while others deserved misguidance" (An-Nahl: 36).

The Qur'an was firm in showing the state and the judgement of these mushrikin who do not appeal to the ruling of Allah and His Messenger. Allah says: "But no, by your Lord, they will not believe until they call you to arbitrate in their disputes, and then find within themselves no resentment regarding your decisions, and submit themselves completely" (An-Nisa: 65). Ibn Kathir (may Allah have mercy on him) said: "Allah swears by His holy self that no one is a believer until he submits to the ruling of the Prophet ﷺ in all matters, and that whatever judgement he made is the truth that we must submit to inside and outside." And at-Tabari said: "It isn't the way they claimed that they believe the revelations, while they appeal to the taghut. He, glory be him, continued after His vow, saying: 'By your Lord O Muhammad, they don't believe,' meaning: they don't believe you and in me and with what we sent down to you until they appeal to you to judge among them in their matters".

They did not believe in Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, those who did not avoid the Ttghut and its forms today in democracy and its filth from elections and parliaments and other recent idolatry which people are roaming around and believing that it can help or harm them or bring them their livelihood or security. They forget what Allah says: "Those who believe, and do not obscure their faith with wrongdoing—those will have security, and they are guided" (Al-An'am: 82). And they did not believe in Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, those who appeal to the election boxes in which everywhere they are opened, the gates of torment and havoc open with them.

The candidates and their electors are assaulting what is only for Allah, which was shown by the Prophet ﷺ in the Hadith mentioned by Muad (may Allah be pleased with him), where he said: "I was riding along the Prophet ﷺ on a donkey, and he said: 'O Muad, do you know what is the duty of Allah towards His creation, and the duty of his creations towards Allah?' I said: 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He said: 'The duty of the creation towards Allah is to worship Him alone without associations, and the duty of Allah towards His creation is not to torment who does not associate anything with him.." (Bukhari and Muslim).

It is your duty towards Allah to worship Him alone, and included in that is not to appeal to anyone else, as whoever appealed to the laws and systems of Kufr, he has wronged Allah in what is his and given it to lesser humans, and even worse, to the filthiest of humans who make up laws instead of Him. Ruling is for Allah alone and He is the wisest of the rulers, and the candidates and electors seek to take that from Him, and want to apply other rules of recent ignorance. Allah says: "Is it the laws of the time of ignorance that they desire? Who is better than Allah in judgment for people who are certain?" (Al-Ma'idah: 50). Ibn Kathir said: "Allah denounces everyone who leaves His solid ruling which contains every good, and forbids every evil, and He denounces who sought other whims or views or vocabularies which was put by men without a reference from Allah's Shari'ah, just like the people of ignorance used to rule with their delusions .. putting them in front of the rules in Allah's book and the Sunnah of His Prophet, and whoever did that is a kafir that must be fought until he returns to the ruling of Allah and His Prophet, as no one else has a say in anything small or big".

The da'wah of the mujahidin and their message and goal is to establish the Shari'ah of Islam everywhere. The Islamic State has been busy since its establishment until today advising and warning from shirk in all of its forms, and preventing people from it and directing them to the truth, and dragging them to heaven with chains, while the murtaddin who falsely claim to be Muslims are getting creative in downplaying the falling into kufr and legalizing it and glorifying it for the masses and dragging them down to hell and permanent chains!

The Islamic State remains on its da'wah and jihad by Allah's permission, because that is the goal of its battles and the secret of its remaining and steadiness and surviving these great horrors which changed the face of the world while it couldn't change the face of the Islamic State nor its core. And so it remained - with Allah's grace - just like it was following the path of the prophecy, inviting to tawhid with words and actions and fighting shirk with words and weapons. It keeps confirming this in every occasion, and considers it guidance from Allah towards His straight path, and a great grace that it thanks with the blood of its leaders and soldiers who rush to confirm that worship and ruling is only for Allah for better or worse.

As for the home of Khilafah and Iraq of faith, it will only be ruled with Allah's Shari'ah, and the carriers of the axe of the Khalil who soaked the noses of the Rafidah and their allies in dirt are still holding their positions, and tomorrow for who awaits it is very near.